

BLACK LIVES
MATTER

Implicit Bias in Healthcare, Medical Education, and the Community

A Panel Discussion

Thursday, April 30, 2015

5:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Green Auditorium – Scott Hall
Wayne State University School of Medicine
540 E. Canfield
Detroit, MI 48201

For more information, call 313-576-9734 or email thompsoh@karmanos.org.

Panelists include:

- Dr. Lou Penner - Professor, Department of Oncology – WSU School of Medicine, Population Sciences & Disparities Research Program – Karmanos Cancer Institute
- Ms. Voncile Brown-Miller - Former Director of Health Disparities, Lakeshore Division – American Cancer Society.
- Ms. Megan Brady – Project Manager for Healthcare Equity Initiatives, Institute on Multicultural Health – Henry Ford Health System

This event is a collaboration with the Office of Diversity & Inclusion at Wayne State University School of Medicine, in conjunction with the Black Medical Association, and sponsored by:

